Jerry Senatore was born and raised in Totowa, NJ, and is a member of the Passaic Valley HS class of 1982. As an FBI Special Agent for the last 20 years, he has conducted countless investigations, provided training around the world, served our country in Iraq, sifted through the debris of September 11th, and is currently a SWAT Team Leader. Jerry now needs a bone marrow transplant as the next step in his two-year battle against non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma; he will be treated at the Duke Medical Center. Friends and family are hosting a "Join Jerry" dinner to help defray medical and travel costs and offer support.
